

Model of ESD school

- The role of school culture:
  - Professional orientation

Need for Change

Growth in Student Achievement

Values of sustainable development in school

- ◆ Care oneself
- ◆ Care others
- ◆ Care environment

School culture

1. Professional orientation 	2. Organizational structure * The vision, policies, procedures, rules, etc. of school's ESD work are together agreed. * The work of sustainable development is organized and responsibilities are agreed. * There are resource for promoting ESD at school: lessons, materials, study visits, reimbursement of the teachers extra work. * School's learning environments (indoor and outdoor) are developed to support ESD.	3. Teaching and learning	4. Student centered learning
---	---	--	--

Themes of sustainable development used in teaching and school practices

Saving energy and water	Consumption and waste reduction	Food and drink	Travel and traffic	School building and yard
Mental and physical wellbeing	Prevention of bullying and discrimination	Equality	Global citizenship	Preservation of cultural heritage

PUPIL'S SUSTAINABLE WAY OF LIVING

1. Professional orientation

- Sustainable Development work at school have goals and plans
- The staff educates and acquires knowledge on the ESD.
- The staff cooperate to implement sustainable development themes.
- New teachers will be guided to school's' culture for implementing sustainability
- Teachers regularly evaluate their own work of promoting sustainable development

2. Professional orientation

1. Leadership and management

